

received by said commissioners to be paid to the trustees of Anne Arundel county academy.

Chapter 20. Manual Training Schools in the Counties.

1898, ch. 273, sec. 1.

135. It shall be the duty of the board of county school commissioners when a suitable building or room or rooms connected with one of the large graded schools or high schools shall be provided by the county, or money sufficient for the erection of such building or room or rooms to accept the same (if in the judgment of the board there is any necessity therefor) and thereafter to provide for the maintenance of a manual training school or manual training department for said county and the salaries of teachers and manual training instructors out of the general school fund and the State aid hereinafter provided.

Ibid. sec. 2.

136. Whenever a manual training school or manual training department is opened in any county the president and secretary of the board of county school commissioners of said county shall report to the secretary of the State board of education, and the State board of education shall without delay proceed to appoint the principal of the State normal school, or one of the teachers in said school well qualified for such service, to visit the school and give a certificate of approval of its condition and the plan upon which it is conducted, and thereafter the president and secretary of the board of county school commissioners shall report to the comptroller the condition of the school, the number of instructors and the number of pupils enrolled on or before the twentieth day of January in each year.

Ibid. sec. 3.

137. The comptroller of the treasury, after receiving the certificate of approval concerning the county manual training school, or manual training department, according to the provisions of section 136, is hereby authorized and directed to issue his warrant upon the treasurer of the State for the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, payable to the order of the treasurer of the board of county school commissioners of the county filing the certificate of approval aforesaid, out of any moneys in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated, on the first day of October in each year, for the support of said manual training school or manual training department.