

priated, on the first day of October in each year, for the support of said colored industrial school or schools, and thereafter the said industrial school or schools shall be under the management and control of the said board of county school commissioners.

1898, ch. 273, sec. 8.

142. No entire appropriation for the benefit of any manual training school, provided for under this sub-title, shall be paid as authorized, after the first annual appropriation, unless said school shall have had an average daily attendance of thirty scholars for the preceding year; and in case said attendance shall fall short of said number, then there shall only be paid towards the maintenance of said school at the rate of fifty ($50.00) dollars for each scholar of its daily average annual attendance, to be determined by the report hereinbefore required to be made to the comptroller.

Ibid. sec. 9.

143. No appropriation for the benefit of the colored industrial schools of any county provided for under this sub-title shall be paid after the first annual appropriation unless the average daily attendance at such school or schools shall have been for the preceding year at least thirty scholars, and in case said attendance shall fall short of said number then there shall be paid to the treasurer of the county school commissioners maintaining said school or schools only at the rate of fifty ($50.00) dollars a scholar for the daily average annual attendance at the same, to be determined by the report hereinbefore required to be made to the comptroller.

1902, ch. 418, sec. 118 A.

144. The superintendent of public education shall supervise and inspect the work of manual and industrial training done in the several counties of the State under the provisions of this article, collect all necessary statistics pertaining thereto and annually on or before the twentieth day of August certify to the comptroller the names of such counties as shall have complied with the provisions of said article relating to such training and such as shall for the ensuing year be deemed entitled to receive the appropriation or appropriations provided for in the three preceding sections (specifically setting forth the amount to be paid to each of said counties); and upon the receipt of such certificate from the superintendent of public
