

education, but not otherwise, the comptroller shall draw his warrant upon the treasurer, payable to the order of the treasurer of the board of county school commissioners of the county so certified as entitled to receive the same, for the full amount of money so certified to be due to such county under the provisions of this article, and the superintendent of public education shall on or before the twentieth day of August in each year submit to the State board of education a full report of all matters pertaining to manual industrial training in such counties and attach thereto a copy of the certificate filed by him with the comptroller.

1902, ch. 418, sec. 118 b.

145. The several boards of county school commissioners are hereby authorized to establish manual training schools and departments of manual training in connection with such number of graded or high schools in their respective counties as they shall deem expedient, and to distribute the money appropriated by this article equitably among the manual training schools and departments of manual training so established, to the end that instruction in such branch may not be restricted to one locality in such county, but extended, as far as practicable, to the whole of such county; provided, that the instruction to be given in such schools or departments shall in all cases conform to the course or outline of such work prescribed or to be prescribed by the State board of education; and provided that no part of the money appropriated by this article for manual training shall be used for any other purpose.

Farmers' Institutes.

1896, ch. 102, sec. 1.

146. A department of "Farmers' Institutes" shall be established for the State of Maryland; the purpose of these institutes shall be to bring before the farmers of the State such information as will effectually remedy many of the existing evils now prevalent in every department of agriculture as now pursued in Maryland; and at said institutes men competent to instruct shall be present, and such topics shall be discussed as pertain to the principal agricultural interests of the several sections.

Ibid. sec. 2.

147. One such institute shall be held in each year in each county of the State, and an additional one in each county, if deemed necessary and desirable.
