

report of all bids received by it from all parties whomsoever; the money so to be paid under said contract shall be due and payable as follows: One-third at the end of sixty days from the commencement of said session; one-third at the end thereof, and the balance so soon thereafter as the said contractor hath fully and entirely completed the said contract; and the comptroller is hereby directed to draw his warrants upon the treasurer for such payments at such times, but no warrants shall be drawn unless, at the times thereof, the said printing board shall have certified in writing to said comptroller that up to the time of granting said certificates the said printing has been done and contract performed as called for by it up to said time.

5. So much of said printing as shall be necessary for the general assembly during its session shall be delivered to the presiding officers of each house, and such presiding officer shall give or cause to be given to the printer a receipt for all printed matter delivered to the respective branches of the legislature.

Ibid. sec. 6.

6. The said board is hereby authorized to pay the sum of fifty dollars as additional compensation to such officer in the treasurer's or comptroller's department whom it shall select to do the clerical work necessary in making said contract.
