

to levy the State taxes to be collected according to law and to be apportioned for the year 1904 as follows: a tax of fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars to aid in support of the public schools to be distributed according to law among the several counties and city of Baltimore; a tax of one and three-fourths of one cent on each one hundred dollars to defray the costs of supplying books for the use of the children in the public schools of this State; a tax of one-half of one cent on each one hundred dollars to meet the interest and create a sinking fund for the redemption of the penitentiary loan; a tax of one-eighth of one cent on each one hundred dollars to meet the interest and create a sinking fund for the redemption of the insane asylum loan; a tax of one-half of one cent on each one hundred dollars to meet the interest and create a sinking fund for the State building and improvement loan; a tax of two and seven-eighths cents on each one hundred dollars to meet the interest and create a sinking fund for the redemption of the consolidated loan of 1899; a tax of three-fourths of one cent on each one hundred dollars to meet the interest and create a sinking fund for the redemption of the State loan of 1902; and a tax of one cent on each one hundred dollars to meet the interest and create a sinking fund for the redemption of the public buildings loan, making an aggregate of twenty-two and one-half cents on each one hundred dollars; and the comptroller of the treasury shall levy the same State taxes on the shares of capital stock of all banks, State and national, and other incorporated institutions and companies of this State, the shares of whose capital stock are liable by law to assessment and taxation. The county commissioners of the several counties of this State and the mayor and city council of Baltimore are directed to levy the State taxes to be collected according to law, and to be apportioned for the year 1905, and annually thereafter, as follows: a tax of fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars to aid in support of the public schools, to be distributed according to law among the several counties and city of Baltimore; a tax of one and three-fourths of one cent on each one hundred dollars to defray the cost of supplying books for the use of the children in the public schools of this State; a tax of one-half of one cent on each one hundred dollars to meet the interest and create a sinking fund for the redemption of the penitentiary loan; a tax of one-eighth of one cent on each one hundred dollars to meet the interest and create a sinking fund for the redemption of the insane asylum loan; a tax of one-half of one cent on each one