

1904, ch. 671, sec. 7

9. For the purposes of the investigation, as aforesaid, the chief of said bureau of industrial statistics or such person as he may depute in writing, as aforesaid, shall have power to administer oaths, to issue summons for the attendance of witnesses, to enforce the attendance of witnesses, production of papers and books, to the same extent that power is possessed by courts of record or judges thereof in this State.

Ibid. sec. 8.

10. All information of a personal character or pertaining to the private business of any person, firm or corporation, or which might have a tendency to expose the profits or methods of doing business by any person, firm or corporation, coming to the knowledge of the chief of said bureau or person deputized by him, or to the arbitrators selected under the aforesaid provisions, shall be deemed confidential and so treated, and all documents and testimony taken shall be filed in the office of the bureau of industrial statistics.

ARTICLE XC.

SURETIES.

Counter Security.

1. When sureties of executor or administrator may procure counter security.
2. Orphans' court may call on executors or administrators to give new security, may revoke letters for failure to give.
3. Sureties of guardians may call for counter security; court may require it to be given.
4. Sureties of trustees may call for counter security; court may remove trustee for failure to give.
5. Sureties of clerks or registers may apply for counter security; proceedings upon such application, penalty for failure to give.

6. Petition for relief from liability of a surety.

Completion of Collections of Sheriffs and Collectors of Taxes.

7. Court may appoint trustee to complete collections of sheriff, deputy sheriff and collector, when.
8. Injunction may also issue for protection of sureties, and receiver be appointed in such cases
9. Court may compel delivery of books and papers to such trustee or receiver.
10. Sections 7-9. shall apply to executors and administrators of said officers.