

135. School commissioners to refund should legal representative appear.
136. Distribution of specific articles, how made.
137. Court may appoint two disinterested persons to make; sale of articles and distribution of proceeds.
138. Conveyance by administrator of chattels real to distributees.
139. Special advance to persons entitled in straitened circumstances, in anticipation of distribution.
140. Delivery under like circumstances to specific legatees.
141. Female entitled to receive her share at eighteen years of age.
142. Meeting of legatees, etc., for purpose of distribution.
- Guardian and Ward.
143. Orphans' court to appoint guardian when infant becomes entitled by descent, inheritance, devise or bequest to any property.
144. When infant acquires property by purchase or gift.
145. Although infant may have parents living; notice to parents.
146. Infant may be brought before the court.
147. Appointment of a guardian by mother by last will to be valid.
148. In case of death or renunciation by guardian of female infant, court may appoint guardian.
149. Guardianship to extend to all the property within the State.
150. Administrator to discharge duties of guardian to infant, when.
151. When administrator's duty to act as guardian shall terminate. Power of orphans' court to order money of infant distributee to be deposited in bank.
152. Guardian to settle his account under sections 150 and 151, how.
153. Bond of guardian.
154. Condition of the bond.
155. One guardian for several infants.
156. Court may call for new security from.
157. Court may order property to be delivered to.
158. Valuation of real estate of ward, how to be made.
159. Waste not to be committed.
160. Real estate of ward, how to be cultivated.
161. Rents of real estate of infant dying; how to be distributed.
162. Administrator of guardian may receive such rents.
163. Guardian to account for increase of ward's property; liable for decrease, when.
164. To settle account annually.
165. Court may order sale of specific articles.
166. Sale and investment of leasehold estate of ward.
167. Investment of ward's money.
168. Location and sale of land warrants of ward.
169. Guardians of females between eighteen and twenty-one may be appointed to locate or sell land warrants.
170. Orphans' court may authorize conveyance of ground rents to owners of leasehold by guardian upon proper petition.
171. Power of orphans' court to order investments of estate.