6. If anything be bequeathed to an executor by way of compensation, no allowance of commissions shall be made unless the said compensation shall appear to the court to be insufficient; and if so it shall be reckoned in the commission to be allowed by the court.

Renshaw v. Williams, 75 Md. 498.

Ibid. sec. 7. 1860, art. 93, sec. 7. 1823, ch. 131, sec. 1

7. The orphans' courts are hereby authorized, wherever they are satisfied that an agent has been employed in the administration of an estate, to examine such agent on oath, touching all proceedings which may have taken place relative to the administration of the estate in which such agent may have been employed, in like manner as they are authorized to examine administrators.

Ibid. sec. 8. 1860, art. 93, sec. 8. 1820, ch. 174, sec. 7.

8. Every administrator may, within one year after the date of his letters, return to the orphans' court a list of the debts due from his decedent, which may be made known to him, stating the principal and the time at which interest is to commence on each respective debt—to which list of debts shall be annexed the oath of the administrator that the same is a correct list of the debts due from his decedent, so far as the said debts have come to his knowledge; and every six months thereafter, until the estate may be finally settled, a similar return may be made of such debts as shall come to the knowledge of the administrator within that period—which list of debts shall be recorded by the register of wills and a copy thereof certified under the hand of the register, and the seal of his office shall be prima facie evidence of the amount of debts due by the decedent in any court where the administrator alleges that he has not assets sufficient to discharge the claim in controversy, or any part thereof.

Ibid. sec. 9. 1860, art. 93, sec. 9. 1820, ch. 174, sec. 8

9. Such lists shall not afford any evidence of the justice or correctness of any claim therein when controverted by the
