340. Every executor or other person exhibiting a will shall be examined on oath whether or not he knows of any other will or codicil, and in what manner the will or codicil exhibited came into his hands.

Ibid. sec. 332. 1860, art. 93, sec. 320. 1798, ch. 101, sub-ch. 2, sec. 13.

341. If the probate of any will or codicil be taken as aforesaid without contest, any person, before letters testamentary or of administration with a copy of the will shall be actually granted, may file a petition to the court praying that the case may be again examined and heard; and thereupon the orphans' court shall delay the granting of letters until a decision shall be had on the petition; and in case the letters shall have been granted, and any person shall file such petition, and the court on hearing both sides—that is to say, the petitioner and the grantee of such letters—shall decide against the probate, the letters aforesaid shall be revoked, and the power of the party under the letters shall cease; and the said will shall not be proved in any other county, unless the decision be reversed on appeal.
