

the greatest usefulness may result to the State and national service. The said officers are authorized to print weekly and monthly reports of the results and operations of said service and to distribute the same in such a manner as they shall deem most serviceable to the people of the State.

1892, ch. 329, sec. 3.

3. The sum of two thousand dollars annually, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, is appropriated out of any funds of the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this article, to be paid to said officers, or to their order, by the treasurer upon the warrant of the comptroller, and upon the vouchers of said officers; provided, however, that no part of said sum shall be paid for salaries for any officer or officers, but a reasonable compensation may be paid for printing and other necessary and proper expenses of said officers.

Ibid. sec. 4.

4. Said officers shall report to the legislature at its regular sessions their expenditures under the provisions of this article and such other information as said officers may deem desirable, or as the legislature may require.
