

successor be appointed. The said game warden shall receive a salary from the State for his services of twelve hundred dollars per annum, and shall be entitled to an expense account for actual traveling expenses, and other expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties, to an amount not to exceed in any one year the sum of six hundred dollars, and shall receive a portion of the fines arising from the violation of the game and fish laws when the offenders shall be prosecuted by said game warden, or his deputy game wardens, as hereinafter provided. The said game warden may be removed by the governor of this State at any time upon proof satisfactory to him that said game warden is not vigorously enforcing the game or fish laws of this State, or is not a fit person for said position. The word "game" shall be taken to embrace deer, wild turkey, pinnated grouse, ruffed grouse, known as "pheasants," Mongolian or English pheasants, woodcock, partridges or quail, rabbits, squirrels, ducks, geese and all other species of wild fowl.

36. It shall be the duty of the said game warden and his deputy game wardens to prosecute all persons and corporations having in their possession any game or fish contrary to either the general or local game or fish laws of this State. It shall also be their duty to see that the game and fish laws are enforced and obtain information as to all violations of the said game and fish laws.

Ibid sec. 3. 1904, ch. 346, sec. 3.

37. Whenever the game warden considers that it is necessary that he should have deputy game wardens appointed to assist him in more efficiently enforcing the game and fish laws of this State, he may apply to the governor to commission such persons as he may designate to act as deputy game wardens in the counties and cities of the State, to enforce the game and fish laws of this State, and carry out all the provisions of this sub-title; such persons may be appointed for the whole State or for such counties or cities as the governor in his commission shall designate. If the governor approve such persons he may appoint them deputy game wardens; such deputy game wardens shall not receive a salary from the State, cities or counties, but shall be paid such compensation out of the fines collected or otherwise, as the game warden may agree with them.
