

Warden" or "Deputy Game Warden," as the case may be, inscribed thereon. The metallic shield or badge provided for in this section is hereby declared to be the property of the State, and upon the termination of the commission of any deputy game warden as provided for by section 41, it shall be the duty of said deputy game warden to forthwith return to the State game warden the said shield or badge and also transmit to him for cancellation and return to the executive department his revoked commission. In case of the failure of said deputy game warden to comply with the provisions of this section, by returning immediately to the game warden his badge and commission after notice as provided by section 41, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined five dollars and costs by any justice of the peace of the county or city in which he resides; the said fine to be payable to the game warden.

1896, ch. 293, sec. 7. 1904, ch. 346, sec. 7.

41. Whenever the services of any deputy game warden shall no longer be required by the game warden, the game warden shall give a notice in writing to this effect to said deputy game warden, and shall file the same in the office of the clerk where the oath of office of such deputy game warden shall be recorded, which notice shall be noted by the clerk upon the margin of the record where such oath or affirmation is recorded, and thereafter the power of this deputy game warden shall cease and determine, and a copy of such notice shall be immediately served on such deputy game warden by the game warden and such service shall be by registered letter through the U. S. mails or by the sheriff of the county in which the commission of the said deputy game warden so removed shall be recorded.

Ibid. sec. 8.

42. In all cases in which prosecutions for violations of any of the general or local game or fish laws of this State shall be instituted by the game warden or any deputy game warden and shall result in the collection of a fine or fines, then all of such fine or fines, after the proper court costs or costs of the justice of the peace in convicting such offenders shall have been paid, shall be paid to the game warden as his compensation. And all public and local game and fish laws heretofore enacted are hereby so amended as to make the fines therein provided payable to the game warden according to the terms of this section. This section shall not prevent the collection of any portion of
