

twenty-five dollars and costs for each violation of this section, which may be recovered in the circuit court or before a justice of the peace of the county in which such violation occurred; one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer, if any, and the remainder or whole thereof, as the case may be, to the board of county school commissioners of such county, for the use of the public schools thereof; and upon conviction and failure to pay the fine imposed and costs of the proceeding, the person so convicted shall be committed by court or justice who imposed said fine to the county jail for a period not exceeding ten days.

NOTE.—For many of the counties special local laws exist upon the subjects covered by this article, which as to these counties supersede the general law altogether, except where otherwise specially provided either in the general or local law.

ARTICLE C.

WORK—HOURS OF, IN FACTORIES.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. More than ten hours' work per day of employes prohibited. 2. Special arrangements by contract for longer work, when permitted | 3. Penalty. 4. Employment of children under twelve years of age, unlawful; penalty; counties excepted from this provision. |
|--|--|

1888, art 100, sec. 1. 1888, ch. 455.

1. No corporation or manufacturing company engaged in manufacturing either cotton or woollen yarns, fabrics or domestics of any kind, incorporated under the laws of this State, and no officer, agent or servant of such named corporation or manufacturing company, and no person or firm owning or operating such corporation or manufacturing company within the limits of this State, and no agent or servant of such firm or person shall require, permit or suffer his, its or their employes in its, his or their service, or under his, its or their control to work for more than ten hours during each or any day of twenty-four hours for one full day's work and shall make no contract or agreement with such employes or any of them providing that they or he shall work for more than ten