

APPRENTICES— Continued	ART.	SEC	PAGE.
Citation for children to be brought before the court.	6	14	254
Term of apprenticeship, children to be taught . . .	6	15	254
Two justices of the peace may bind out children . . .	6	16	255
Contract to be approved by orphans' court.	6	16	255
Trustees of the poor may bind out children . . .	6	17	255
Such indentures to be lodged with register of wills within thirty days.	6	18	255
In recess of orphans' court, trustees of the poor may cite children and bind them out . . .	6	19	256
Father may bind out his children . . .	6	20	256
Such indentures to be lodged with register of wills within thirty days	6	20	256
Manufacturers may take apprentices.	6	21	256
Terms of such contracts to be recorded	6	21	256
Directors of penitentiary, managers of house of correction and house of refuge, may bind out children of female convicts	6	22	257
Such indentures to be recorded . . .	6	22	257
Apprentices in the country to work in harvest fields	6	23	257
Enticement away of apprentices . . .	6	24	257
Encouragement of apprentices to disobedience or absence	6	24	257
Court may compel performance of partly executed apprenticeship . . .	6	25	257
Compensation to master for loss of service by absconding apprentice . . .	6	26	258
Apprentice to remain in service of widow of master, when	6	27	258
Widow, with approval of orphans' court, may assign unexpired term to third party.	6	28	258
Widow may keep in her service, or deliver up to orphans' court, female apprentice of her husband	6	29	259
Valuation of unexpired term, where father's consent to the widow's taking the apprentice cannot be had, how and when made.	6	30	259