

CORPORATIONS— Continued.	ART.	SEC.	PAGE.
Determination of judge to be endorsed on certificate, and recorded.	23	52	556
Corporators then to be incorporated	23	53	556
Certified copy of certificate to be evidence	23	54	556
Amendment of charter, how to be made	23	55	556
Usual fees to clerks for recording.	23	56	557
General powers	23	57-63	557-8
To have succession	23	58	557
To sue and be sued	23	59	557
To have seal. . . . .	23	60	557
To acquire and dispose of property	23	61	557
To appoint president and other officers . . . . .	23	62	558
To make by-laws. . . . .	23	63	558
Shall have no powers but those conferred or necessary to exercise of those conferred . . . . .	23	64	558
To be managed by such number of trustees, directors or managers as by-laws or charter prescribe; election. . . . .	23	65	559
Elections to be held by ballot . . . . .	23	66	559
Vacancies to be filled as prescribed in by-laws. . . . .	23	67	560
Omission to hold election on designated day not to dissolve corporation . . . . .	23	68	560
How subscriptions may be made. . . . .	23	69	560
Books to show what property was received for stock. . . . .	23	70	560
Stock to be personal property; transferable, when . . . . .	23	71	561
Individual liability of stockholders for debts of corporation; payment for stock . . . . .	23	72	561
Certificate showing payment of stock to be filed and recorded . . . . .	23	73	562
What persons holding stock in, not to be personally liable for debts . . . . .	23	74	562
Dividends when insolvent; directors to be liable for debts . . . . .	23	75	562
Directors not approving of such dividends to dissent in order to escape liability and record their dissent.	23	76	563