

INHERITANCE— Continued.	ART.	SEC.	PAGE.
Person electing to take estate shall give bonds to other parties . . .	46	51	1296
SALES BY COMMISSIONERS.
If all parties refuse to elect, land shall be sold by commissioners; terms of sale; ratification. . .	46	52	1297
Not to be sold, if parties are all minors, until eldest arrives at age; profits	46	53	1297
If sold on credit, bonds for deferred payments to be given by purchaser to several heirs; bonds to be a lien.	46	54	1297
Heir electing to take or purchaser may be permitted to give one bond to State for the whole purchase money; bond to be a lien . . .	46	55	1298
Commissioners may re-sell at risk and expense of former purchaser, who fails to comply with terms of sale	46	56	1298
Life estate of surviving husband, sale may be made free of such life estate; award	46	57, 58	1299
Allowance to surviving husband in lieu of life estate, where estate cannot be divided	46	59	1299
Where life estate is acquired after re-return, but before sale, return shall be altered accordingly.	46	60	1300
In case of life tenant under deed or devise, same proceeding to be had.	46	61	1300
Widow's dower to be laid off; return.	46	62	1300
Where widow consents to sale, proper allowance shall be made to her out of proceeds	46	63	1301
Compensation to commissioners, how to be paid.	46	64	1301
Commissioners to make deed to party electing to take, upon payment of valuation	46	65	1301
Commissioners to make deed to purchaser upon full payment of price	46	66	1302
Deed to assignee of purchaser	46	67	1302
Vacancies amongst commissioners to be filled by court	46	68	1302
Court may appoint person to make deed to purchaser, when	46	69	1303