

INDEX.

2363

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE— Continued.	ART.	SEC.	PAGE.
DOCKETS
Shall keep docket and enter proceedings therein and furnish copy of judgment whenever required . . .	52	13	1376
Should failure to keep, cause loss of his debt to plaintiff, justice shall pay such debt . . .	52	14	1376
Shall also keep full index.	52	15	1376
Upon vacation of office, shall deliver docket and all papers to clerk; penalty	52	16	1376
Administrator of deceased justice to make such delivery; penalty . . .	52	17	1376
Clerk shall keep such dockets and papers, and make transcripts therefrom when required	52	18	1377
Process may be issued by one justice upon docket of another justice so delivered to clerk	52	19	1377
PROCESS AND PRACTICE.
Shall not issue blank summons; penalty	52	20	1377
Process shall be a summons; when returnable	52	20, 21	1377
Should defendant "summoned" fail to appear, justice shall fix what day for trial	52	22	1377
Should all defendants be summoned and some fail to appear, justice shall try case as if all had appeared	52	23	1378
May summon witnesses, and attach them for non-attendance	52	24	1378
Proceedings upon such attachment	52	25	1378
May postpone trial not more than fourteen days	52	26	1378
May try case ex parte	52	27	1378
No special pleading required.	52	28	1378
Upon death or disqualification of justice, any other justice in same county or city may act in the case.	52	29	1378
Constable to give notice to parties in such cases	52	30	1379
Process and practice in relation to partnership, incorporation, etc	52	31	1379
JUDGMENTS.
To be entered within three days after trial	52	32	1379