

MORTGAGES.	ART.	SEC.	PAGE.
Deed absolute on its face shall be considered a mortgage, if there be a defeasance in writing; defeasance must be recorded with deed . . . . .	66	1	1543
To be liens for the sums stated; to secure further advances; not to apply to indemnity mortgages, nor to mortgages by brewers to malsters for malt and other material sold . . . . .	66	2	1543
Special provision for Baltimore and Prince George's counties . . . . .	66	3	1544
Mortgages for purchase money to have priority over previous judgment; proviso . . . . .	66	4	1544
Mortgagor may covenant to pay taxes, assessment and public dues on the mortgage debt; exception . . . . .	66	5	1545
May contain power to sell; where interests are held by several assignees, either may sell; party first instituting proceedings shall have exclusive right to sell. . . . .	66	6	1545
Party proposing to sell shall give bond. . . . .	66	7	1546
Notice of sale to be given; publication. . . . .	66	8	1546
Sales to be reported for ratification . . . . .	66	9	1546
Re-sale, if first sale be set aside . . . . .	66	10	1547
Sale to pass title of mortgagor at date of mortgage. . . . .	66	11	1547
Party entitled to surplus may apply to court to have it paid to him. . . . .	66	12	1547
Deed to the purchaser by party making the sale, or by trustee appointed to execute it. . . . .	66	13	1548
Mortgagee may buy in the property, sale to him to be valid . . . . .	66	14	1548
Property to be sold in county or city where the land or part of it is located . . . . .	66	15	1548
Terms upon which court may grant injunction to stay sale . . . . .	66	16	1548
Court may dissolve injunction on ten days' notice, penalty for misrepresentation . . . . .	66	17	1549
Injunction bond to be given before injunction . . . . .	66	18	1549