

1888, art. 10, sec. 24. 1864, ch. 243.

26. In any case where judgment shall be recovered by the State against any principal debtor and a surety or sureties, and said judgment shall be satisfied by said surety or sureties, the same shall be entered by the attorney representing the State to the use of the surety or sureties satisfying the same, on the said attorney filing in the case a certificate of the comptroller stating that said judgment has been so satisfied, and said surety or sureties shall then be entitled to execution in his, her or their own name or names against the principal and the other sureties, in the same manner and subject to the same provisions contained in sections 6 and 7 of Article VIII.

Peacock v. Pembroke, 8 Md. 348.

Attorneys in Fact.

Ibid. sec. 25. 1860, art. 11, sec. 24. 1836, ch. 270.

27. All payments of money, transfers of property or other dealings made or had to or with any person acting under a power of attorney, or other agency duly executed or created by any person within this State, which would be binding upon the party giving such power of attorney or agency if the same was in full force and unrevoked at the time of such payment, transfer, or other dealings, shall be equally binding and obligatory upon the representatives or other assignees of such party, although at the time aforesaid said party may be dead, or may have assigned his interest in such money, property or dealings; provided, that the person paying, transferring or having such dealings with the person acting under such power of attorney or agency had not at the time notice of the death of the party giving such power or creating such agency, or of the fact of the assignment aforesaid.

Etchelberger v. Sifford, 27 Md. 330.

Ibid. sec. 26. 1860, art. 11, sec. 25. 1838, ch. 49.

28. A power of attorney to transfer stock standing on the books of any corporation chartered by this State in the name of a partnership or firm, signed with the name of such partnership or firm, and sealed by one of the members thereof, acknowledged as directed in the next succeeding section, shall be as valid and effectual as if signed and sealed by all the members of such partnership or firm.

Ibid. sec. 27. 1860, art. 11, sec. 26. 1838, ch. 49.

29. The member signing and sealing such power of attorney shall acknowledge the same before a justice of the peace of
