

stating that a bank located in the county or city refuses to pay specie for its notes, and upon the court being fully satisfied that such bank does refuse to pay specie for its notes, the said court may order its clerk to issue a scire facias in the name of the State of Maryland, and directed to the said bank by its corporate name and style, to show cause why its charter shall not be declared forfeited by the judgment of the said court.

Bank of Md. v. Ruff, 7 G. & J. 448. Planters' Bank v. Bank of Alexandria, 10 G. & J. 346.

1888, art. 11, sec. 3. 1860, art. 12, sec. 10. 1834, ch. 305.

3. When any such bank shall appoint a trustee or trustees for the benefit of the creditors of such bank, any court of equity having jurisdiction where the said bank is situated or has its office may in its discretion appoint, in place of such trustee or trustees, or any of them, any other person or persons who shall be nominated and recommended by a majority in amount of the creditors of said bank, if the said court shall be satisfied that the interest of the creditors of said bank requires such appointment.

Ibid. sec. 4. 1860, art. 12, sec. 11. 1834, ch. 305.

4. In all such cases, the majority of the creditors in amount shall have the right on application made to the said court to require the trustee or trustees who shall be appointed by any bank for the benefit of the said creditors to give bond and security to the State of Maryland in such sum and with such security as the said court may require and approve, for the faithful performance and execution of the trust; and on neglect or refusal so to do, to surrender up the trust; and the said bond shall be filed and recorded with all other of the proceedings, and a copy of the same, authenticated in the usual form, shall be evidence.

Ibid. sec. 5. 1860, art. 12, sec. 12. 1852, ch. 314, secs. 1, 6.

5. Every bank and incorporated institution in this State which is in the habit of receiving deposits and declaring dividends shall cause to be published in some newspaper printed in the county in which such bank or institution may be located, or in the city of Baltimore, as the case may be, once a week for three successive weeks in the month of September in each year, a list of the deposits and dividends which have been of more than three years' standing, and
