Art. 19. At all meetings of the stockholders of the corporation for elections and other purposes, no person shall be allowed to vote on any share or shares of stock at such meetings, either in person or by proxy, unless the said person shall, if required by a stockholder, make oath before the judges of election, or other officers of the meeting, that he or she, as the case may be, is the lawful and bona fide owner of said stock, having purchased and paid, or secured payment for the same, a full consideration, or received the same by inheritance, bequest, marriage, distribution, or gift, and without any understanding that the said stock is to be transferred to the party from whom it was received; or in case of voting by proxy or power of attorney, the person holding such proxy or power of attorney, shall make oath or affirmation, if required by a stockholder, that he believes his principal, for whom he offers to vote, bought and paid, or secured the payment for the said stock a full consideration, or that the said principal, to the best of his knowledge and belief, is the real bona fide owner of said stock, having acquired the same, as the case may be, by inheritance, bequest, marriage, distribution, or gift; provided, however, that this provision shall only apply to such shares of stock in the corporations aforesaid as shall appear to have been transferred upon the books of the corporation within one year next preceding the meeting at which it is offered to vote upon them.

Art. 20. It shall not be lawful for any of such banking institutions to make discounts in or pay out any funds or money other than the legal currency of the United States, notes issued by authority of their charter, and notes issued by other banking corporations, received at their par value by the banks so paying them out.

Art. 21. On the first Monday in January, annually, the president or other proper officer of each bank or banking institution doing business in this State, under charter from the general assembly thereof, or under the provisions of sections 19 to 32 of this article, shall pay or cause to be paid to the treasurer of this State the sum of twenty cents on every hundred dollars of the issue of notes then in actual circulation, which it shall be lawful for such banks or banking institutions to issue, to be
