

1888, art. 16, sec. 93. 1886, ch. 151.

104. In cases where proceedings have been or shall be instituted for the renewal of a lease containing a covenant for renewal, the court may pass a decree for the renewal of such lease, which shall be binding upon all persons who shall have become parties to such proceedings by summons or appearance, or who shall have been proceeded against by publication, as provided by section 127 of this article; and such decree shall be sufficient to renew the title of all persons interested under such lease, according to their respective interests and estates thereunder, for such additional term, under such rent and upon such covenants, conditions and stipulations as were provided in such lease.

Ibid. sec. 94. 1886, ch. 151.

105. Every renewal decree passed under the provisions of the preceding section shall be recorded among the land records of the county or city where the land affected by such decree may lie.

Ibid. sec. 95. 1886, ch. 308, sec. 2. 1904, ch. 25.

106. If any person residing in this State shall desire to change his or her name, such person may file in the Circuit Court for the county of his or her residence, or in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, or in the Circuit Court No. 2 of Baltimore City, if such person resides in the City of Baltimore, a petition in which shall be stated the change which such person desires shall be made in his or her name, and the reasons therefor; and thereupon the said court, upon being satisfied in such manner as it shall by its rules prescribe, that the prayer of the said petitioner shall be granted, shall order and decree that the name of such person be changed as prayed in said petition; and upon the passage of such decree, the true and legal name of such person shall be that determined by the said decree; and a copy of the said decree, under the seal of said court, shall be sufficient and legal evidence of the facts therein stated. A petition provided for in this section may be filed on behalf of any infant residing in this State, by the father or mother of such infant, or in the case of the death of the father and mother of said infant, by the guardian of such infant; the costs of the proceedings provided for in this section shall be regulated by the said court, and shall be paid by the petitioner.
