

of such defaulter, and to prosecute the same with diligence and effect ; and in no case shall he fail to institute suit on the bond of every collector of the taxes who shall be in default or arrear for more than one year.

1868, art. 19, sec. 22. 1860, art. 22, sec. 20. 1852, ch. 67.

22. In case of the institution of any suit or action against a collector or other officer charged with the collection or receipt of monies belonging to the State, or against the official bond of such collector or other officer, a statement of the account of such collector or other officer, certified and signed by the comptroller, shall be taken and received as prima facie evidence of the debt or amount therein stated to be due.

Ibid. sec. 23. 1860, art. 69, sec. 6. 1856, ch. 16, sec. 8. 1876, ch. 206.

23. The comptroller shall furnish each officer of the State, whose accounts are in arrears, at least sixty days prior to a general election, a full statement of his accounts ; and in default of his accounting for such deficiencies within thirty days, then it shall be the duty of the comptroller to have published weekly, for one month, in one or more newspapers in the county or city in which said defaulters have held or may be holding office, and in no other newspapers, the names and titles of said officers, with the amount of said deficiencies ; and the cost of advertisement of the account of such defaulters may be recovered in the name of the State against their official bond ; but no defaulter whose accounts have remained unsettled for over five years shall be advertised.

24. The comptroller shall see that the provisions requiring the publication by the banks and other incorporated moneyed institutions of unclaimed dividends and deposits shall be complied with.

Ibid. sec. 25. 1860, art 22, sec. 22. 1853, ch. 86, sec. 2.

25. He shall cause to be printed, in the forms prescribed by law or usage, blank marriage licenses, traders' licenses, ordinary licenses, non-resident licenses, brokers' licenses, hawkers' and peddler's licenses, exhibition licenses, billiard-table licenses, wood-hucksters' licenses, and all other licenses issued by the clerks of the courts of this State, and now authorized by law, with the several rates, grades and descriptions thereof, with reference to the character and object of said licenses, the sum
