

1900, ch. 272, sec. 85 c. *

110. All corporations mentioned in section 108 and thereby required to renew their corporate rights and franchises, shall be required annually after such renewal, and until they actually organize and begin business, to pay the franchise tax required under the next preceding section of corporations hereafter organized, with like penalties in case of default. The several corporations mentioned in sections 108, 109 and 110 of this article, shall be liable for the payment of the franchise tax imposed herein upon their respective corporations, and in the same manner as though they had jointly and severally agreed to pay the same; and the State tax commissioner is hereby charged with the duty of carrying the provisions of said sections into effect by assessing the said franchise tax upon the several corporations in said sections required to pay the same.

1902, ch. 589. 1904, ch. 93.

111. From and after a period of one month subsequent to the first day of April, in the year 1904, every association or corporation doing business in the State of Maryland employing wage-workers, whether skilled or ordinary laborers, engaged in manual or clerical work, in the business of mining, manufacturing, operating a steam or electric railroad, street railway, telegraph, telephone or express company, shall make payment in lawful money of the United States semi-monthly to said employees, laborers and wage-workers, or to their authorized agents, at their respective places of employment, at intervals of not more than sixteen days and not more than fourteen days. In case any said corporations or associations doing business as aforesaid, or any of their officers, shall refuse to make payment at the times above set forth to their wage-workers, laborers or other employees the wages due them, or any of them, said association, corporation or officer so refusing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to indictment therefor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars for each offense.

1894, ch. 629, sec. 104 A.

112. No corporation incorporated under the laws of this State, for any purpose whatsoever, nor any foreign corporation doing business in this State, shall offer to procure or act as agent for any person or persons in procuring or making any
