

and after such notice as the by-laws of said company shall prescribe for that purpose; and if at such general meeting a majority in interest of all the stockholders in any corporation having a capital stock, or a majority of the shareholders or members in other class of corporations, shall, by their votes, declare their wish that said corporation shall be dissolved, a bill for its dissolution shall forthwith be filed in the name of said corporation and on its behalf in the circuit court of Baltimore city, if its principal office or place of business be in said city, or in the circuit court for the county in which its principal office or place of business may be situated.

Frank v Morrison, 58 Md. 440. Mason v. Equitable League, 77 Md. 484.

1888, art. 23, sec. 266. 1868, ch. 471, sec. 187

379. Every such bill shall contain a statement of the reasons why the dissolution of the said corporation is prayed for and sought; and there shall also be filed with it—

First. A full and true inventory of all the assets of such corporation and of all the books, securities and vouchers relating thereto.

Second. A true account of the capital stock of such corporation and a list of all the stockholders, their residences, and the number of shares belonging to each, the amount paid on each of said shares and the amount still due.

Third. A statement of all the incumbrances on the property of the corporation, and a full list of all its creditors and their respective residences, and the amount due to each. All of the said statements shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of either the president, treasurer, secretary, or some other chief officer, or of some stockholder of the said corporation.

Ibid.

Ibid. sec. 267. 1868, ch. 471, sec. 188.

380. Upon the filing of said bill, accompanied by the aforesaid papers, the court shall pass an order requiring all persons interested in such corporations to show cause, if any they have, why such corporation should not be dissolved on or before a certain day to be named in said order, which order shall be published for such time as the court shall direct in some newspaper published in the county, or city of Baltimore, as the case may be, in which such court is held; and upon any answer being filed to the said bill by any creditors or stockholders of such corporation, the court may authorize evidence
