

said sum of two hundred dollars, the manner of providing for said work, and whether the same shall be done by contract or otherwise, and if by contract, the manner of letting the same shall be in the discretion of the county commissioners.

1888, art. 25, sec. 23. 1860, art. 28, sec. 51. 1856, ch. 308, sec. 4.

Ibid. sec. 24. 1860, art. 28, sec. 52. 1856, ch. 308, sec. 5.

Ibid. sec. 25. 1860, art. 28, sec. 53. 1856, ch. 308, sec. 6.

25. If, upon petition in writing of any citizen or citizens of any county to the county commissioners praying for a bridge to be built or repaired over any stream or place dividing two adjoining counties, the said county commissioners shall deem the prayer of the petition reasonable, they shall by message in writing ask the concurrence of the county commissioners of the adjoining county, and upon the concurrence of the last named county commissioners the county commissioners of each county shall appoint three disinterested and discreet examiners, and each shall notify the other of such appointment.

Co. Comm'rs of Prince George's Co. v. Comm'rs of Laurel. 51 Md. 463.

Ibid. sec. 26. 1860, art. 28, sec. 54. 1856, ch. 308, sec. 6.

26. The said examiners shall with all convenient dispatch meet and examine and determine as to the expediency of building or repairing the bridge, the place where, the plan, material and the relative portion of the cost each of the adjoining counties should pay, and estimate the whole cost, and report their opinion and all other proceedings to their respective county commissioners.
