1866, ch. 105.

113. Any owner or owners of a mill, factory, distillery, quarry or lime kiln, situated within one mile of any railroad, may apply to the county commissioners of the county to lay out and open a private road from such mill, factory, distillery, quarry or lime kilns, to the most convenient place for intersecting such railroad; and on such application the county commissioners shall proceed in the same manner and with the same powers as if such application were for a private road to a farm.

Jay v. Michael, 92 Md. 209.

Ibid. sec. 110 1860, art. 28, sec. 39. 1836, ch. 255, sec. 2.

114. If an applicant for a road under the preceding section shall state in his application that he intends to lay a railway on such road, the commissioners appointed to assess the damages which any person will sustain by opening such road shall take into consideration the additional damage (if any,) which would be caused by the construction of such railroad; and shall determine the places at which crossings shall be made over such railroad, for the convenience of the owners of the land on either side of such private road, and shall specify the same in their return to the county commissioners.
