165. It shall be the duty of every justice of the peace before whom any information may be lodged and proof made of any violation of the preceding section to issue his warrant to any constable of the county in which the same shall be committed commanding him to bring such offender before him, or any other justice of the peace for said county who shall recognize him in the sum of two thousand dollars, with good and sufficient security; or in case of neglect or refusal, then to commit such offender to prison to take his trial at the next term of the circuit court for the county.

Fraud by Mortgagors of Personal Property.

Ibid. sec. 111. 1884, ch. 202. 1888, ch. 193. 1894, ch. 315.

166. Any mortgagor of personal property in possession of the same, or any purchaser of personal property under an unrecorded, conditional, written contract, in possession of said property, or any execution debtor in possession of personal property levied on and taken in execution, who, in the case of mortgaged personal property, without the consent of the mortgagee or his assigns, first had and obtained in writing; or who, in the case of the purchaser of personal property under an unrecorded, conditional, written contract, without the consent first had and obtained in writing of the conditional vendor in said contract, or his assigns, or who, in the case of personal property levied on and taken in execution, without the consent of the execution creditor, his assigns or lawfully authorized agents, first had and obtained in writing, and with intent to defraud the mortgagee or his assigns, and to defeat his or their lien under said mortgage, or with intent to defraud the said conditional vendor of personal property in an unrecorded, conditional, written contract, or his assigns, or with intent to defraud the execution creditor or his assigns, and defeat his or their lien under said execution, shall remove any of the personal property so mortgaged or purchased under said unrecorded, conditional, written contract, or levied on and taken in execution as aforesaid, as the case may be, beyond the limits of the city or county where it was located when so mortgaged or purchased under said unrecorded, conditional, written contract, or levied on and taken in execution, or who, with intent as aforesaid,
