

to which has been added salt, boracic acid, salicylic acid, salicylate of soda, formaldehyde or any other acid, drug, compound or substance, or to which ice or water has been added for any purpose whatsoever ; or which has been taken from an animal ten days before or five days after parturition ; or which has been taken from a sick or deceased animal ; or which has been taken from animals fed in whole or in part on garbage or any substance in a state of fermentation or putrefaction, or food that produces impure, diseased or unwholesome milk, or from cows stabled near a house where there is an infectious disease ; or from which a portion of the cream has been taken ; but nothing in these sections shall be construed as prohibiting the addition of sugar in the manufacture of condensed or preserved milk, or as prohibiting the sale of pure skimmed milk, when sold as such, and from cans plainly and conspicuously marked with the sign or placard "Skimmed Milk," in capital letters, each of a size of not less than one inch square, or as prohibiting the sale of pure, wholesome milk, not complying with the provisions of section 232, for the manufacture therefrom of butter, cheese or other products. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the feeding of ensilage from silos.

1900, ch. 459, sec. 138 E and sec. 2.

234. Whoever shall violate any of the provisions of sections 232 and 233 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned for not more than sixty days, or both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court for each offense ; said sections not to apply to Montgomery county, except when residents of said county shall ship or sell milk to Baltimore city, nor to limit the powers of the mayor and city council of Baltimore to enact ordinances and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of these sections for the inspection and sale of milk or the products thereof in the city of Baltimore.

1900, ch. 532, sec. 138 F.

235. No condensed or preserved milk shall be manufactured, sold or exchanged, or offered or exposed for sale or exchange, unless the same be manufactured from or out of pure, clean, healthy, fresh, unadulterated and wholesome milk, from which the cream has not been removed either wholly or in part, or unless the proportion of milk solids of same shall be in quantity the equivalent of twelve and fifty one-hundredths
