

cases in which search warrants are issued in accordance with the law ; and if any one or more of any of such articles above mentioned, or any parts of the same, shall be found in, upon or about the premises so designated the officer executing such search warrant shall thereupon report the same under his oath to the said justice of the peace, who shall thereupon, upon said report and upon the oath of any person or persons charging any violation of section 308, issue his warrant for the arrest of said person or persons against whom such charge or charges shall be made and cause him or them (together with such articles) to be brought before him for trial.

311. The several justices of the peace in the respective counties of this State shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit courts for their respective counties, and the justices of the peace selected to sit at the respective station houses in the city of Baltimore shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the criminal court of Baltimore in the case of persons arrested for the violation of the provisions of section 308, and such respective justices shall proceed to hear and determine such cases when the parties arrested upon charges of such violation are brought before them, respectively, and to acquit such persons, or to sentence such persons for the offense if convicted thereof, unless such respective person so charged when so brought before said justices of the peace, respectively, and before they are respectively tried, as aforesaid, shall pray a jury trial. If any person charged with the commission of any one or more of the several offenses mentioned in section 308, brought before any justice of the peace, shall pray a jury trial as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the said justice of the peace to commit such person for trial, or to hold him to bail to appear before the criminal court of Baltimore or the circuit court for the county, as the case may be, and to return the commitment or the recognizance in such case immediately to the clerk of said court. And if such person or persons shall be found to be guilty of the violation of any of the provisions of sections 306 to 314, the court or justice of the peace imposing the punishment herein prescribed shall also award possession to the owner of all of the property involved in such violation.
