

1892, ch. 17, secs. 231 A & B. 1892, ch. 397, 231A. 1892, ch. 540.

366. Any person who shall cling, climb, jump, step or in any other way get upon any part of any locomotive, engine or car, whether the same be freight, passenger, coal or otherwise, upon any part of the track of any railroad within this State, unless in so doing he acts in compliance with law, or by permission under the rules and regulations of the railroad company or corporation operating and managing such railroad, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace or any court of competent jurisdiction shall be fined not less than one dollar nor more than twenty-five dollars, or be subject to imprisonment in jail or in the house of correction for not more than six months, or to both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the justice of the peace trying the case, or court before whom the case may be tried; or if such person be a minor under sixteen years of age, he may in the discretion of the justice of the peace, or any court trying the case, be committed to any reformatory institution provided by law, and authorized to receive the same, for such period as the justice of the peace or court may determine, not to exceed two years.

Campbell v. B. & O. R. R. Co., 97 Md. 342.

1902, ch. 150, sec. 231B.

367. Any person, other than the duly authorized employes of any railroad company, who shall interfere with the signals by which the movements of the trains of such railroad company are governed by giving what is known as a train signal to start any train when at rest, or to stop any train when in motion, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof be sentenced to the house of correction or the county or city jail for not more than six months.

Rape.

1888, art. 27, sec. 232. 1860, art. 30, sec. 161. 1809, ch. 138, sec. 4.

368. Every person convicted of the crime of rape or as being accessory thereto before the fact shall, at the discretion of the court, suffer death or undergo a confinement in the penitentiary for not less than eighteen months nor more than twenty-one years; and penetration shall be evidence of rape, without proof of emission.
