

of labor, and under his direction the assistant warden shall deliver out the materials and receive the manufactures.

Balto. Boot Co. v. Jamar, 93 Md. 408.

1888, art. 27, sec. 468. 1860, art. 73, sec. 79 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

634. He shall cause such accounts to be kept in the workshops and other departments of labor as will show the amount of material furnished, and the quantity of work done by each convict, and the amount to which they may be entitled for overwork; and these accounts shall be closed every week for the purposes of detecting and punishing any misconduct of the prisoners in the performance of their tasks.

Ibid. sec. 469. 1860, art. 73, sec. 80. 1837, ch. 320, sec 25

635. He shall inspect the moral conduct of the prisoners, and in person, or by the assistant warden, attend divine service whenever it may be held, at which all the prisoners shall attend, unless prevented by sickness.

Ibid. sec. 470. 1860, art. 73, sec 81. 1837, ch 320, sec 25.

636. He shall be answerable for the police and discipline of the institution, and shall report monthly to the board upon the conduct of the officers under his direction; and the board shall remove any officer for the slightest offense or omission in the discharge of his duty.

Ibid sec. 471. 1860, art. 73, sec 82 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25

637. He must not permit any prisoners to be together at any time without proper supervision of an officer.

Ibid. sec. 472 1860, art 73, sec 83. 1837, ch. 320, sec 25.

638. He shall not encourage any espionage or tale-bearing among the convicts.

Ibid. sec. 473. 1860, art. 73, sec. 84 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

639. He shall govern the institution by the weight of its authorities, and the prisoners must be made to feel that the officers are entirely cognizant of all their improper designs and prepared to counteract or prevent any effort on their part.

Ibid. sec 474. 1860, art. 73, sec 85. 1837, ch. 320, sec 25.

640. He may punish to the extent of thirteen lashes and ten days' confinement on bread and water, and may authorize his deputies and under officers to give from one to five lashes for infractions of discipline, and he must present a record of