

125. Provision for examination of boundaries and sub-division of election districts.
126. Maps of wards and precincts to be furnished to officers of registration. Persons may be furnished copies upon payment of fifty cents per copy.

Contested Elections.

127. Contested elections for certain offices shall be decided by the house of delegates.
128. Judges of circuit courts for counties and superior court of Baltimore city to decide all other cases of contested elections.
129. Mode of proceeding and costs in such contests.
130. Right of appeal.
131. Time within which notice of such contest is to be given.
132. How notices shall be delivered.
133. Notice from justice of peace to be sent to the opposite party.
134. Attendance of witnesses.
135. What notice of justice of the peace shall contain.
136. Depositions shall be taken under oath.
137. Where such depositions shall be sent.
138. Examination of witnesses taken only in the manner prescribed to be admitted on trial.
139. Copies of recorded papers shall be admitted at such trials.
140. What other papers may be admitted as evidence.
141. Ballots may be produced in regard to such testimony under order of court.
142. Pay of justice and witnesses.

143. Person contesting not to be allowed mileage, etc., unless establishing his right to such contested seat.

Electors of President and Vice-President.

144. Date of election of electors of president and vice-president.
145. Qualification of voters.
146. Tie vote.
147. Election of electors, how conducted.
148. Vacancies in the college of electors, how filled.
149. Meeting of electors.

Representatives in Congress.

150. Election of congressmen.
151. How vacancies in Congress shall be filled.

Congressional Districts.

152. State shall be divided into six congressional districts.
153. Counties composing first district.
154. Counties and wards of Baltimore city composing second district.
155. Wards of Baltimore city composing the third district.
156. Wards of Baltimore city composing the fourth district.
157. Counties and wards of Baltimore city composing fifth district.
158. Counties composing sixth district.
159. Separate election returns.
160. This article not to affect offenses committed before its adoption, but pre-existing law to apply to such offenses.

Supervisors of Elections.

1896, ch. 202, sec. 1.

1. The governor biennially, by and with the advice and consent of the senate if in session, and if not in session, then the