

expense thereof, the same shall be taken to the nearest garage or other place where the same can be properly kept and protected, and there left subject to the order of the officer or justice in whose custody it was left as aforesaid. Any officer or other person using or operating any motor vehicle so left in custody as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or in default thereof be imprisoned for a period not exceeding sixty days. If the person depositing such security as aforesaid shall fail to appear before the magistrate or court at the time specified, the amount deposited by him may be declared forfeited, and be disposed of as money deposited for bail in other cases, or the motor vehicle so left as security may be sold at public auction after ten days' notice to the owner at the address given, and by handbills publicly posted, such sale to be by order of the justice of the peace or police justice or court; and from the amount realized upon such sale, a sum equal to the maximum fine for the offense charged shall be disposed of in like manner as though such sums had been deposited as aforesaid, and the surplus, if any, after deducting all expenses incurred in keeping, or the sale of such motor vehicle, be returned to such owner on demand.

139 A. The word "chauffeur" as used in this section shall mean any person operating a motor vehicle as mechanic, employe or for hire, except employes of manufacturers testing uncompleted automobiles. Every person hereafter desiring to operate a motor vehicle as a chauffeur shall file in the office of secretary of State, on a blank to be supplied by such secretary, a statement duly verified by affidavit, including his name and address, and the trade name and motive power of the motor vehicle or vehicles he is able to operate, and shall pay a registration fee of two dollars, one dollar of which fee shall be retained by the secretary of State for his services in issuing the license and for furnishing the said chauffeur with a badge, and the remaining one dollar shall be paid to the State treasurer for the use of the State road fund. The secretary of State shall thereupon file such statement in his office, register such chauffeur in a book to be kept for that purpose, prop-
