

against the said veterinary inspector, and said appeals shall be acted on by said court in the same manner as appeals from justices of the peace ; provided, no animal may be appraised or paid for under the provisions of this sub-title that has been slaughtered for more than three years before the passage of this section ; and provided further, that all animals that have been slaughtered as aforesaid within three years prior to the passage of this section may be appraised and paid for as hereinbefore set forth, and including such animals as were not passed by said veterinary inspector, but were slaughtered by reason of having tuberculosis and upon the advice of any regular veterinarian after a careful test by the injection of tuberculosis of Koch's lymph ; provided further, that such appraisement shall be made within six months from the passage of this section ; and no animals slaughtered after the passage of this section shall be appraised and paid for hereunder unless such appraisement shall be made or begun within six months from the time when such animals were slaughtered.

Approved April 9, 1906.

ARTICLE LIX.

LUNATICS AND INSANE.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 2. Maryland asylum and training school for feeble minded. | 3. Terms and conditions upon which inmates may be received and cared for; duty of board of visitors. |
|---|--|

1894, ch. 562, sec. 4. 1906, ch. 362.

4. Said Maryland asylum and training school for feeble-minded shall receive, care for and educate, free of charge, all idiotic, imbecile and feeble-minded persons of this State whom the board of visitors shall consider proper subjects to receive the benefit of said asylum and training school, who shall pre-