

Administration.

1906, ch. 270.

38 B. Any administrator, executor, guardian, committee, receiver, trustee, assignee or other fiduciary or party of whom a bond, undertaking or other obligation is required, is authorized to agree or arrange with his surety or sureties, either for a general or a special deposit for safe-keeping of any and all moneys, assets and other property for which he is or may be responsible with a bank, savings bank, safe deposit or trust company authorized by law to do business as such, and situate in the city or county in which his said bond may have been filed, and in such manner as to prevent the withdrawal or alienation of such money, assets or other property, or any part thereof, without the written consent of such surety or sureties, or an order of a court or a judge thereof, made on such notice to such surety or sureties as the court or judge may direct.

Approved April 2, 1906.

Register of Wills.

1892, ch. 409. 1906, ch. 33.

277. The comptroller shall, from time to time, limit and fix the number and compensation of assistant clerks or deputies to be employed by any such register, and no account for compensation for services of any assistant clerk, deputy or other person employed in performing any of the duties pertaining to the office of any such register shall be allowed until such assistant, deputy or other person employed shall have certified under oath that the said services have been performed; that he has received the full sum therein charged to his own use and benefit, and that he has not paid, deposited or assigned, nor contracted to pay, deposit or assign, any part of such compensation to the use of any person, nor in any way, directly or indirectly, paid or given, nor contracted to pay or give, any reward or compensation for his office or employment, or the emoluments thereof, and such registers of wills are authorized to appoint such assistant clerks and deputies, and when duly qualified as such said assistant clerks and deputies shall have the power and authority to act in the place and stead of the register of wills; and all such acts heretofore performed by any such assistant clerk or deputy are expressly ratified and confirmed as if they had been performed by the register of wills in person.

Approved February 27, 1906.
