UNITED STATES.

Exclusive Jurisdiction of United States.

31. State's consent given to acquisition by United States of land for public buildings.

32. Jurisdiction ceded to United States over such land; reservation.

33. Such land to be exempt from State, county or municipal taxation.

Exclusive Jurisdiction of United States.

1906, ch. 743, sec. 1.

31. The consent of the State of Maryland is given in accordance with the seventeenth clause, eighth section of the first article of the Constitution of the United States, to the acquisition by the United States by purchase, condemnation or otherwise of any land in this State required for sites for custom houses, courthouses, postoffices, arsenals or other public buildings whatever, or for any other purposes of the government.

Ibid. sec. 2.

32. Exclusive jurisdiction in and over any land so acquired by the United States ceded to the United States for all purposes except the service upon such sites of all civil and criminal process of the courts of this State, but the jurisdiction so ceded shall continue no longer than the said United States shall own such lands.

Ibid. sec. 3.

33. The jurisdiction ceded shall not vest until the United States shall have acquired the title to said lands by purchase, condemnation or otherwise; and so long as the said lands shall remain the property of the United States when acquired as aforesaid, and no longer, the same shall be and continue exempt and exonerated from all State, county and municipal taxation, assessment, or other charges which may be levied or imposed under the authority of this State.
