

Draining Lands.

1906, ch. 137.

72. Any person feeling himself aggrieved by any determination of the county commissioners, or by any proceedings had under this article relating to drains, may appeal to the circuit court for the county in which such determination was made or proceedings were had, and shall be entitled to trial by jury, at the election of either party; provided, such appeal shall be taken within thirty days from the day such determination was made or such proceedings were had; and the judgment rendered thereupon shall be final between the parties thereto.

Ibid.

74. The commissioners appointed by the county commissioners to locate, lay off, open, enlarge, straighten, clean out, repair or extend any ditch, or to make any assessment for the use and maintenance of any ditch, before proceeding to do so, shall give at least ten days' previous notice of their intention to proceed with the execution of their commission, by notice set up at four public places in the neighborhood of said ditch, and by notice inserted in a newspaper published in each county in which lands taxed for the said ditch are situated.

Ibid.

75. The county commissioners shall, at their first meeting after receiving any report or return of any such ditch commissioners, appoint a day to hear objections to such report or return, and to correct, ratify and confirm, or reject the same; and they shall give at least twenty days' previous notice of the time and place of such hearing in a newspaper published in each county in which lands taxed for the said ditch are situated, and by written or printed notice mailed to each taxable named in such report or return.
