

324 B. Punishment of minors wilfully misrepresenting themselves to be of full age to sellers of intoxicating drinks.

Railroad Obstructing.

366. Section repealed as to Garrett county.

Rivers.

381. Punishment for digging and carrying away sand, gravel and other material from beds of navigable rivers; provisions; rights of riparian owners; not to apply to taking of fish or oysters.

Traction Engines.

399 to 402. Regulations for the use of on public roads; penalties.

Vagrants and Tramps.

425. Who to be deemed tramps; punishments; special provision for Talbot, Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester counties; section not to apply to Allegany county.

Procedure—Indictment—Amendments.

447 A. Formula to be used in indictments for murder or manslaughter or for being accessory thereto; statement of manner or means of death to be unnecessary.

Jurisdiction—Procedure—Sentence.

461 A. In what cases of maximum and minimum penalty court may impose less penalty of the same character.

461 B. Jail convicts may be made to work on public roads or in quarry pit or yard to prepare materials for use on county roads.

House of Refuge.

509 A to 509 D. Name changed to the Maryland School for Boys; legacies, devises, gifts and appropriations to be payable to institution; commitments to be valid and all rights and privileges preserved notwithstanding change of name.

State Penitentiary.

599 A. Annex for female convicts—Provision for construction of.

Process Against Corporations in Criminal cases.

651. How process shall be served.
652. Appearance; plea; judgment; execution.

Boundaries.

1906, ch. 782.

25 A. Any person who shall remove, break or otherwise destroy or mutilate any monument or monuments marking any boundary line between the State of Maryland and any adjacent State, or between any counties of the State of Maryland, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court having criminal jurisdiction in any county on a boundary line of which such monument shall have been situated when so removed, broken, destroyed or mutilated, shall be fined not more than fifty dollars for each and every offense.