

and all appropriations for and gifts, grants and devises heretofore or hereafter made, given, granted, devised or bequeathed to the house of refuge shall survive and inure to the benefit of, and vest and remain in the Maryland school for boys, as fully as if made for or given, granted, devised or bequeathed to it by said name of the Maryland school for boys.

1906, ch. 28, sec. 3.

509 c. The Maryland school for boys shall have all the rights, powers and privileges given or granted to, and be subject to all the duties, restrictions, limitations and considerations imposed upon the said house of refuge by chapter 64 of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, approved February 8, 1831, and all acts amendatory thereof, as fully and absolutely as if the same were herein repeated, recited and specifically set out and re-enacted; and in particular, all commitments to said house of refuge shall remain in full force and effect as commitments to said the Maryland school for boys, and shall not be invalidated by the two preceding sections.

Ibid. sec. 4.

509 d. All benefits and immunities that otherwise would inure to the house of refuge by its charter or by appropriations, grants, gifts, devises, bequests or operations of law shall survive and inure to the Maryland school for boys, though not specifically set out herein.

Approved February 27, 1906.

State Penitentiary.

1906, ch. 411.

509 a. By this chapter the construction of an annex for female convicts is authorized and specific provision made for such construction.

Process Against Corporations in Criminal Cases.

1906, ch. 403.

651. When any indictment shall be found or information filed by the attorney-general in this State for violation of its laws against any corporation, joint stock company or association incorporated under its laws, or against any corporation