

Compensation.

1906, ch. 544.

116. The sheriffs in the several counties shall, respectively, be allowed the sum of twelve (12) dollars for each election held in their county for the performance of the duties therein required, to be levied as other county charges ; provided, that when two or more elections are to be held on the same day the sheriff shall not be allowed more than twelve dollars for such elections (except in Baltimore city) ; all judges, whether acting as or sitting as officers of registration, and clerks of election shall be allowed and paid three dollars a day ; fractions of a day shall be allowed for at the rate of thirty cents an hour. In the city of Baltimore, in the year 1907, and thereafter, the judges when acting as officers of registration shall be allowed and paid five dollars a day, and all judges and clerks when sitting as officers of election shall be allowed and paid ten dollars for each election conducted by them ; each judge and clerk of election who has performed all the duties and services required of him by this article shall be allowed pay for his time as above provided. When any judge or clerk does not perform all the services required by this article, then such board of supervisors of elections shall audit his time and allow him compensation only for the time during which he has actually served.

Approved April 9, 1906.

Primary Elections.

1904, ch. 682. 1906, ch. 407.

152. Political parties which at the general election held on November 3, 1903, polled ten per cent. of the entire vote cast in the State, shall hereafter nominate their candidates for public office, and shall elect all delegates to conventions, or managing bodies in said political parties, and all precinct, ward, city and county executives or executive committees, not appointed by party conventions, whenever the political party usage provides for such executives, or committees, by means of primary elections conducted under the provisions of this section, and not otherwise ; and the several boards of supervisors of elections shall not print on the official ballot to be voted at any general or special election to be hereafter held the names of any candi-
