

tion shall be published two days before said election, in the mode prescribed in section 48 of said article 33, as far as practicable ; it shall not be necessary to print sample ballots or cards of instruction for such elections, but either or both shall be printed by the board of supervisors of elections of the city of Baltimore or counties of the State, respectively, when requested by any candidate or delegate, said request to be accompanied by a sum of money necessary to cover the cost of printing ; each candidate for nomination for public office at a primary election shall pay the sum of twenty-five dollars, and each delegation to a nominating convention shall pay the sum of five dollars upon filing their certificate with the supervisors of elections, and the said board of supervisors shall pay over the amount so received to the mayor and city council of Baltimore city and the county commissioners of each county, and all the expenses of holding said elections shall be paid by the mayor and city council of Baltimore and the county commissioners, respectively, precisely as the expenses of State, city and county elections are now paid under existing law. If such nominations are to be made by conventions, as hereinbefore provided, every candidate having complied with the pre-requisites shall have the privilege of having his name placed on the official ballot, before the name of that set of delegates selected by him or running in his interest, and every vote cast for said candidate by marking in the square opposite his name, in the manner and form provided by this article, shall be construed and counted for his entire set of delegates, unless there is a mark opposite any name in his set of delegates, in which event only those names in that particular set of delegates marked in the square opposite shall be counted as having been voted [for]. Whenever the name of any candidate is so placed upon the ballot, the candidate's surname shall determine his place upon the alphabetical arrangement as hereinbefore provided in this article upon said ballot, and the names of his delegates shall follow immediately after his name in such order as submitted to the board of supervisors of elections. Ballots shall be cast, counted and canvassed, and the result of the election announced and certified, as now provided by said article 33, for elections held thereunder, and the said elections shall be held and conducted in the manner and form provided by this article for general elections, and subject to all the regulations, requirements and pro-