1906, ch. 294, sec. 1.

1. There shall be a State board of forestry, consisting of seven members, the governor, comptroller, president of Johns Hopkins university, president of the Maryland State agricultural college, State geologist, and one citizen of the State known to be interested in the advancement of forestry, and one practical lumberman engaged in the manufacture of lumber within this State, who shall be appointed by the governor, to serve for a term of two years, which board shall act without compensation, save for actual necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

Ibid. sec. 2.

2. There shall be appointed by the board of forestry, a State forester, who shall have a practical knowledge of forestry, and who shall be a trained forester; his compensation shall be fixed by the board, and shall not exceed $2,000 per annum, and reasonable traveling and field expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties. He shall, under the general supervision of the State board of forestry, have direction of all forest interests, and all matters pertaining to forestry within the jurisdiction of the State. He shall have charge of all forest wardens in the State, and aid and direct them in their work; take such action as is authorized by law to prevent and extinguish forest fires; enforce all laws pertaining to forest and wood land, and prosecute for any violation of such laws; collect data relative to forest destruction and conditions; direct the protection and improvement of State parks and forest reserves, and co-operate with land owners, as described in section 4 of this article. He shall annually deliver a course of lectures at the Maryland State agricultural college bearing upon forestry and silviculture, subject to the approval of the
