

fire originated shall be liable in a civil action for damages for the injury resulting from such fire, and also for the cost of fighting and extinguishing the same.

1906, ch. 294, sec. 12.

12. Logging and railroad locomotives, donkey or threshing engines, and other engines and boilers, operated in, through or near forest or brush, which do not burn oil as fuel, shall be provided with appliances to prevent the escape of fire and sparks from the smoke stacks thereof, and with devices to prevent the escape of fire from ash-pans and fire boxes. Failure to comply with these requirements shall be a misdemeanor, punishable, upon conviction, by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100 for each and every offense thus committed.

Ibid. sec. 13.

13. All individuals or corporations causing fires by violations of sections 10, 11 and 12 of this article shall be liable to the State, and to the county in which the fire occurred, in an action for debt to the full amount of all expenses incurred by the State or county in fighting and extinguishing such fire.

Ibid. sec. 14.

14. Justices of the peace for this State in the county wherein the offense shall have been committed shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all prosecutions for the purpose of enforcing fines and penalties, collectible under the provisions of this article, not exceeding the amount of $100 and of holding the offenders, under proper bail if necessary, for hearing before the circuit court, committing them to the county jail until such hearing if the required bail is not furnished. It shall be the duty of the State's attorneys of the several counties to prosecute all violators of section 10 of this article.

Ibid. sec. 15.

15. All money received as penalties for violations of the provisions of this article, less the cost of collection and not otherwise provided for, together with any amount obtained from the State forest reserves, shall be paid into the State treasury to the credit of the forest reserve fund, which fund is hereby created; and the monies in said fund are hereby appropriated
