

giving a new bond, he was advised that his office was vacant, which was a mistake under the act of eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, chapter three hundred and fourteen, he being entitled to ninety days after the first day of January to give such bond; and whereas, under the false impression that his office was vacant, upon application to his Excellency, Governor John Lee Carroll, he appointed him and commissioned him anew as Sheriff of Somerset county, and the said Coulborne paid the sum of forty dollars for said commission; therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of Maryland refund to and pay William Coulborne, of Isaac, the sum of forty dollars, paid for his commission as Sheriff of Somerset county under an appointment which was unnecessary and made in mistake of the existing law.

Refund money paid in mistake.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 25, 1880.
