

Court of Baltimore city, whereby is bequeathed to the trustees of the Seventh Baptist Church of Baltimore the sum of one thousand dollars, for the benefit of the Sunday school connected with said church, and whereby the sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-four dollars is bequeathed to certain trustees named in the said will, to pay the income thereof to the Reverend W. T. Brantley so long as he shall continue to act officially as the pastor of the Seventh Baptist Church of Baltimore, and upon his ceasing to act as such pastor the said sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-four dollars to fall into the residue of the estate of the said Samuel Bevan, deceased.

For benefit of Sunday school.

Approved March 30, 1880.

CHAPTER 81.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money to defray the expenses incurred by Dr. Wilson G. Register, State Vaccine Agent.

WHEREAS the apprehension of small-pox existing among the people of Maryland has created an unusual and extraordinary demand for vaccine virus, and to supply said demand, as required by law, gratuitously to all physicians in the State, the State Vaccine Agent has already largely exceeded the appropriation for the same for this fiscal year, and require an additional amount to continue his office and supply the continued demand for vaccine virus; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, for the protection of the public health, and to protect the State from the effects of so great a calamity as an epidemic of small-pox, the General Assembly has considered it proper, in view of all the circumstances, and to meet the demands of the State Vaccine Agent, to pass the following act; therefore,

Preamble.
