

to appear before the circuit court at the next succeeding term thereof, to answer said charge.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That if it shall be found by said returns of judges of said election and proclamation of said clerk that a majority of said votes, in either of the said hereinbefore mentioned district to which this act refers, have been casted for restricted license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors, that then and in that event the following sections shall be added to article twenty-two of the Code of Public Local Laws of Somerset county, to refer only to said hereinbefore mentioned district, in which there shall have been, by the proclamation of said clerk, a majority of votes cast for restricted license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors, under the sub-title "sales of spirituous or fermented liquors," to take effect on the first day of June next.

Restricted license.

SUB-SECTION M. No person in said district, in Somerset county, in which there was a majority for restricted license as set forth in the preceding section, shall obtain a license for the sale or barter of spirituous or fermented liquors in any quantity whatever, except such as shall be qualified as hereinafter provided.

Qualification.

SUB-SECTION N. Any person in said district, in Somerset county, in which there was a majority for restricted license as set forth in section five of this act, who may keep a house for the reception of guests or of permanent or transient boarders, containing at least two chambers more than are needed for his family purposes, and which said two or more chambers are used for the reception of guests or permanent or transient boarders, containing therein for use at all times at least four good beds, with sufficient covering therefor, and having upon his premises a stable or stables sufficient for the accommodation of four or more horses, shall be deemed and considered to be a hotel keeper within the meaning of this act.

Hotel keeper defined.

SUB-SECTION O. Any such hotel keeper in said district, in Somerset county, in which there was a
