

Fine for violation

upon indictment and conviction therefor, be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for the first offence, and for each offence thereafter he shall be fined as above directed, and also be imprisoned not less than ten nor more than thirty days in the county jail, and his license may be suppressed at the discretion of the court.

Druggist not to barter.

SUB-SECTION S. No apothecary or druggist in Princess Anne district, in Somerset county, shall sell, barter or keep on his premises, except for the private use of himself and his family, any spirituous liquor, wine, ale, beer, schnapps, or any article used and sold as a beverage in the composition or compounding of which whiskey, brandy, high wines or any spirituous or fermented liquors shall be the principal ingredient or ingredients, and every apothecary or druggist so doing shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred dollars; but nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent said druggist from keeping and using alcohol as a solvent for drugs, when such solutions are not to be used as a beverage.

Fine for violation.

Must obtain license.

SUB-SECTION T. Any person who shall sell or barter any intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors, without first having obtained a license as required by this act, shall, upon indictment and conviction therefor by the Circuit Court for Somerset county, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, and be sentenced by said court to the county jail for not less than three months nor more than six months; and it shall be the duty of any justice of the peace, upon information received and confirmed by the oath of a credible witness, to have any person so offending arrested and committed to the county jail, unless he shall give sufficient bail or recognizance, with sureties, to appear before the circuit court at the next succeeding term thereof to answer the charge.

Penalty for violation

Liable for damages

SUB-SECTION U. Any vendor of intoxicating liquor sold in Princess Anne district, in Somerset county, when the majority, as aforesaid, shall vote in favor of said license, shall be liable to pay dama-