

not no license to sell the same in the districts herein mentioned, in Somerset county, shall be issued, shall be submitted to the people of said county on the first Tuesday of May, eighteen hundred and eighty, which election shall be held in accordance with the law governing general elections in this State, and the sheriff of said county shall give notice of the time and purpose of said election, by advertisement inserted in all the newspapers published in said county, once a week for two successive weeks, and by handbills posted in each election district in said county, where said election is to take place, at least ten days before the said election, in which notice a copy of this act shall be inserted; and the expenses of said election, including the notices and handbills aforesaid, shall be levied by the commissioners of said county and paid by the collector thereof.

Sheriff to give notice.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That ballots for or against such sale shall have printed or written on them the words "for restricted license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors," or "against license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors," and the ballots so cast shall be carefully counted by the judges of said election, and that said judges shall make a return of said votes to the clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset county, and said clerk shall immediately make proclamation of the result of said election.

Ballots—how printed.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if it shall be found by said returns of judges of election and proclamation of the said clerk that a majority of said votes, in either of the said districts hereinbefore mentioned, have been cast against license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, that then, and in that event, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, or body corporate, in the district or districts in which there may be said majority against license to sell intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors, except cider and home-made wines, on the premises, when manufactured in quantities not less than a gallon, after the first day of June next; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon indictment and conviction therefor, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hun-

Majority vote to decide.

Penalty for violation