

lars, to pay him for damages received by the explosion of the boiler of the steamer Leila, whilst in the discharge of his duty.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 10, 1880.

CHAPTER 146.

AN ACT to define the limits and describe the boundaries of Dames' Quarter District, number two, in Somerset county, and annex a portion thereof to Princess Anne District, number one, in said county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the boundaries of Dames' Quarter District, number two, Somerset county, shall be as follows: Commencing for the same at a point on Monie Bay, known as Dames' Quarter Creek, and running thence in a southerly direction across the marsh, said marsh being the division between Dames' Quarter and Pigeon House, to Manokin River, thence by and with the channel of said Manokin River to the mouth of Goose Creek, thence to the mouth of a ditch near the head of said creek, thence by and with said ditch to the county road, near the residence of Thomas Heath, thence by the county road leading from Princess Anne, westward to John B. Wallers' store, thence northward, by the county road leading to Waterloo Bridge, to William H. Price's and Little Monie Creek, thence north-westwardly by and with the channel of Little Monie Creek to Monie Bay, to the beginning. That portion of Dames' Quarter District as now constituted, not included in the district as above constituted, is hereby annexed to Princess Anne District, number one, and the inhabitants thereof are entitled to all

Boundaries of Dames' Quarter District.

Portion is an-nexed.